

CHATEAU LAMOTHE-BOUSCAUT

PESSAC-LEOGNAN

Situated in Cadaujac, 200 meters far from Château Bouscaut, Château Lamothe-Bouscaut is an old wine estate owned by Sophie Lurton and Laurent Cogombles. The house dates back to the XIIth Century. Part of the actual vineyard was on the Belleym map (XVIIIth Century). Lamothe Bouscaut wines are very famous in the XIXth Century. In 1969, the vines are loaned to Château Bouscaut that finally acquired the estate in 1999.

70% Sauvignon
30% Semillon

62.6°F
11.8°C

0-4 years

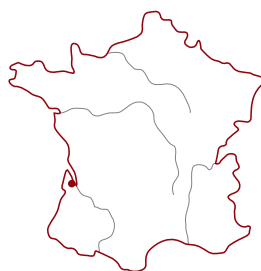

35 years
old

Sustainable

40 hl/ha

TERROIR

VINEYARD : 9 ha (including 8 ha of red)

SOIL : Deep gravel

WINEMAKING

HARVEST: Mechanical harvest.

VINIFICATION: Fermentation in french oak barrel with stirring.

AGEING: In oak barrels during 8 months.

TASTING NOTES

Pale color with golden reflections

White flowers, fresh exotic fruits and toasted hazelnut

Lively and precise attack. Round and aromatic mouth

FOOD PAIRING

Gambas

Snacked scallops

Grilled fish