

CLOS D'AUDHUY

VIN DE FRANCE

Toujours Plus

Benoit Aymard is son and grandson of winegrowers.

Today he manages 15 ha with a diversity of soil and climate. This helps him a lot to produce some very distinctive wines within Cahors appellation. The original plots of land of the estate are located on the third terrace of the Vallée du Lot, sitting on a bed of a rich clay, iron and limestone soil at about 150 meters of altitude facing south. The other part of the vineyard is closed to Lacapelle Cabanac located at 300 meters high on a soil made of limestone surrounded by some clay.

All grapes are certified organic and biodynamic farming.

His aim is to find the purest expression, the delicate and floral aspect of Malbec.
